LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Dean of the Division of Humanities, Social Sciences, Media and Arts, Morehouse College 2022 -
Reporting to the Provost and Senior Vice President of Academic Affairs, the Dean leads the 10 departments and 4 academic programs in the HSSMA Division; engages in division and Academic Affairs strategic planning; promotes division curriculum development and review processes. The Dean also supports the recruitment, development, and evaluation of the 74 division faculty; facilitates the integration of curricular and co-curricular programs; oversees budgeting; and contributes to division fundraising. The HSSMA Dean has frequent interactions with various College offices, as well as other members of the Academic Affairs leadership team, staff, faculty, and students.

AVP for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Initiatives, Agnes Scott College 2021 - 2022
Reporting to the Vice President of Equity and Inclusion (with a dotted line to the Vice President for Academic Affairs), the AVP is responsible for shaping and implementing diversity initiatives from the strategic plan; integrating justice, equity, inclusion and belonging efforts into Academic Affairs; assisting with faculty and division leadership searches; advising departments and programs in the development of policies and procedures; liaising with the office of college advancement; and collaborating with external partners in the City of Decatur, GA.

Faculty Coordinator of Global Learning, Agnes Scott College 2018 – 2022
Nominated by the faculty and appointed by the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Faculty Coordinator guides the implementation, assessment and further development of the College's Global Learning curriculum; develops relevant policy; supervises and supports the interdisciplinary faculty teaching GBL courses; and works with faculty, staff, and administrators across campus to ensure the continued innovation of the general education (SUMMIT) program.

Strategic Planning Committee, Agnes Scott College 2020 - 2022
Nominated by the faculty and appointed by the President of the College, the Planning Committee is the body responsible for the development and implementation of Agnes Scott's strategic plan. Other members include the President's cabinet, the Assistant Dean for Graduate and Extended programs, Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean for Curriculum and Strategic Initiatives, Director of Athletics, Director of Admissions, Senior Director of Alumnae Relations, Senior Director of Development, and the Associate Dean for Student Development.

Faculty Executive Committee - Officer, Agnes Scott College 2020 – 2021
Elected by the faculty, the Vice Presidents of the Faculty Executive Committee together with the FEC President monitor and expedite the democratic and efficient transaction of faculty governance, including the effective functioning of all faculty committees and the timely and informative reporting of committee activities to the full faculty. The officers of the FEC act for the faculty when immediate action is necessary and work closely with the VPAA, and the President of the College. The FEC also serve as liaisons with the Board of Trustees and address faculty issues that relate to diversity, equity, inclusion and justice.

Co-Chair, Pandemic Instructional Planning Task Force, Agnes Scott College, 2020
Appointed by the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Instructional Planning Task Force researched and recommended options for teaching faculty for AY 2020-21, designed summer and fall professional development workshops to prepare for the transition to online learning, and collaborated with campus operations, ITS and the President's cabinet to implement and communicate the College's plans.

Chair of the Department of Sociology & Anthropology, Agnes Scott College 2017 – 2021

Appointed by the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Department Chair is charged with administering an effective department and serving as an agent of the College. Responsible for managing the department budget, developing the curriculum, assessment, staffing (including faculty searches), faculty review and development, and responding to student issues.

Chair, Campus Life Committee, Agnes Scott College 2016 – 2017

Composed of six members of the faculty and the Dean of Students, the committee represents the faculty's interest in the intellectual climate of the campus in matters concerning academic advising, campus events, and DOS functions and ensures the successful integration of students into the academic program.

Co-Coordinator of Gustafson Seminar (w/ Dr. Amanda Lewis), Emory University 2009 – 2010

Sponsored by the Center for Faculty Development & Excellence, the Gustafson Seminar is an interdisciplinary seminar that brings together faculty from across the University to consider a common topic of interest. As co-coordinator of "The Realities of Race," I designed the syllabus, selected participants, and organized a series of public discussions around the topic, bringing in public figures from outside the University.

Humanities Chair, Emory College of Arts & Sciences Curriculum Committee 2007 – 2010

Responsibilities include reviewing and making recommendations to the committee and then to the faculty concerning the curriculum of Emory College. Committee gives final approval to the addition, deletion and alteration of courses not affecting uniform requirements and approves concentration programs as submitted by departments and divisions.

Director of Undergraduate Studies, American Studies Program, Emory University 2006 – 2007

The Director oversees all aspects of the undergraduate program in AMST, chairs the Undergraduate Committee and the Curriculum Committee, advises majors and minors in the program and participates in making graduate teaching assignments.
